

Discover Bishop's Waltham

Bishop's Waltham

Bishop's Waltham is an historic market town with a long and varied history. Set in the glorious Hampshire countryside, it is at the mid point of a long-established route from Winchester to Portsmouth that cuts through chalk downs and the ancient Forest of Bere. The town has a very independent high street and there are many pubs and cafés if you want to stop for a drink or a bite to eat.

Marwell Wildlife

A visit to Marwell Zoo is a chance to get close to the wonders of the natural world – and play a big part in helping to save them. From ring-tailed coatis to poison arrow frogs, bird eating spiders to Amur leopards, cotton-top tamarins to meerkats and giraffes, there are more than 170 species to see and over 140 acres of beautiful parkland to explore. www.marwell.org.uk

Bishop's Palace

Built by Henry de Blois in 1135, Bishop's Waltham Palace was used by the Bishops of Winchester as they travelled through the diocese. Although the palace was destroyed in 1644 after the English Civil War, the ruin is maintained by English Heritage and is a scheduled ancient monument.

St Andrews Church

St Andrews Church is a 13th century church that features two unique stained glass windows which left a lasting impression on Vincent van Gogh.

The deeply religious artist wrote about their unique designs in a letter to his brother.

Stephen's Castle Down

An area of open access, Stephen's Castle Down is an area of chalk downs and is designated as a Site of Importance for Nature Conservation because of its variety of rare plants.

Meon Valley

The Meon valley was settled by a Jutish clan from Europe called the Meonwara. Over the years the population was slowly converted to Christianity by St Wilfrid, and now has a number of fine churches along its length which are easily accessible along the Meon Valley Trail.

South Downs National Park

The South Downs National Park is Britain's newest National Park, rich in landscape, culture and wildlife. Discover ancient woodland and enjoy spectacular views as you explore the open downs and heathlands. Within these landscapes lie bustling market towns and peaceful rural villages, historic houses and the remains of ancient settlements.

Many thanks to Bishop's Waltham Parish Council who have provided information for this publication and helped to create this cycle route. Thanks also go to the Volunteer Ranger Service, which has helped to clear the vegetation and maintain the route.
